

QUALITATIVE RESEARCH IN MENTAL HEALTH

BUDAPEST 31.8.-2.9.2023

Bernadetta Janusz

Assistant professor, Jagellonian
University, Poland

Anssi Peräkylä

Professor, University of Helsinki, Finland

The leaders of the workshop are Dr. Bernadetta Janusz and Professor Anssi Peräkylä.

Dr. Bernadetta Janusz is a clinical psychologist and anthropologist. She is currently an assistant professor at Family Therapy and Psychosomatics Department, Medical College, Jagellonian University, in Cracow, Poland. She is a family and couple therapist, supervisor and trainer of family therapy. Her research focuses on the loss related processes in the family, grieving and family therapy interaction. She is interested in combining qualitative research methodologies.

Professor Anssi Peräkylä is Academy Professor at the Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Helsinki, Finland. He is a sociologist whose conversation analytical research focuses on interaction in psychotherapy and psychiatric settings, as well as on emotions in social interaction. He is also a trained psychoanalyst.